The Medicinal and Aromatic Plants Seminar (MAPS), organised by FRIM's Natural Products Division, is a platform for researchers, academics, herbal entrepreneurs, policy makers and stakeholders to share their discoveries and experiences towards advancing the country's natural products research industries. The 16th MAPS, year 2020, themed "Bridging Traditional Knowledge and Natural Product Innovations Towards Wellness and Shared Prosperity" will be organised together with the Traditional Knowledge Seminar and known as MAP & TK 2020. The jointly organised seminar is an effort by FRIM to develop natural product innovations based on traditional knowledge. It is hoped that this effort will enhance the application of traditional knowledge and improve the country's natural products research as well as industries towards a fair and equitable sharing of benefits.
